

Our Patrons

It is always a delight to be able to welcome visitors to our library, especially first-timers. We have worked diligently to break down the barriers that have separated the diverse groups found in our valley. Our library is a neutral haven allowing all members to come together simply to experience the joy of learning and sharing.